Welcome to our first farmers market for the New Year hope you all had a happy Christmas and New Year. Our December Farmers market I feel for most of you was a successful day

This is my very first newsletter for the market so over time you will notice changes to it and our Market management team we welcome Chris Love to the team he will be filling the role of admin which was left vacant after Geoff passing.

Just to update you all on some matters that have been hanging around after Geoff passed away. We are still working on the farmer's market web site it will be back this year with some training.

I have mentioned in the past about the market going to a pre-paid System we hope to have this in place by the new financial year. Now I also understand that some of you are not keen to move over to this system for different reasons will talk to you all about this once we have details worked out and how we plan on it working

MARKET SAFETY

As mentioned elsewhere, stall holders are NOT permitted to leave the market before 1pm. Must be on site by 7.30 am and ready to go by 8am if you turn up after 8am you may be refused entry if it continues you may also forfeit your site at the market

ALL STALL HOLDERS MUST HAVE WEIGHTS ON YOUR MARQUEES

Also please make sure all your leads and equipment that includes Gas bottles are in date or have been tested and tagged if that applies to your stall. This is something we will be checking

APRIL MARKET IS ON the 25th April which is Anzac day at this stage we will not be having a market

.. On this day out of respect to the returned service men past and present.

We are also looking for some new stall holders so if you know of anyone that might be interested please let myself or Chris know or pass on our details. As long as we do NOT have their product at the market already.

NEXT MARKET IS 22 FEBRUARY 2020

To be old and wise, you must first be young and stupid

Yesterday I saw a guy spill all his scrabble
Letters on the road

I asked him
What's the word on the street?

Two Irish mates Paddy and Mick were walking thru the park when Paddy saw a flag pole he said I wonder how high it is. With that a blonde lady walked and asked them what they were doing Paddy told her her reply that's easy she undid the pole laid it on the ground and measured it its 30 ft she said, as she walked away Paddy said typical blonde we asked for the height, she gave us the length..
